Arizona Revised Statutes (“A.R.S.”) require that a licensed Mortgage Broker must have an individual to be its Responsible Individual. The individual that will be the Responsible Individual must complete a course of study, pass a test given by the Arizona Department of Financial Institutions and must possess the required experience. A Responsible Individual shall be a resident of this state, shall be in active management of the activities of the licensee governed by this article and shall have not less than three years’ experience in the business of making mortgage banking loans or equivalent experience in a related business.... A.R.S. § 6-903

Introduction

It is assumed that the mortgage broker applicant possesses a thorough and current working knowledge of real estate lending principles and guidelines, federal and state law, and mortgage regulation acquired through the required practical mortgage lending experience. This handbook is not intended as a study guide or test preparation tool, but as information regarding the Mortgage Broker Test.

The Mortgage Broker Test is provided to meet Mortgage Broker licensing requirements.

Pursuant to A.R.S. § 6-903, A person shall not act as a mortgage broker if the person is not licensed under this article. A person who brokers only commercial mortgage loans shall obtain either a mortgage broker license or a commercial mortgage broker license. A person who brokers residential mortgage loans shall obtain a mortgage broker license. In addition, the Superintendent shall not grant a mortgage broker license to a person, other than a natural person, who is not registered to do business in this state on the date of granting the license.

An applicant for an original mortgage broker's license shall meet the following requirements:

1. Have not less than three years' experience as a mortgage broker or loan originator or equivalent lending experience in a related business during the five years immediately preceding the time of application.
2. Have satisfactorily completed a course of study approved by the Superintendent during the three years immediately preceding the time of application.
3. Have passed a mortgage broker's test, pursuant to section A.R.S. § 6-908.

If an applicant is a person other than a natural person, the license issued to it entitles all officers, directors, members, partners, trustees and employees of the licensed corporation, partnership, association or trust to engage in the mortgage business if one officer, director, member, partner, employee or trustee of the person is designated in the license as the individual responsible for the person under this article. If the natural person is not a resident of this state, an employee of the licensee shall be designated in the license as the individual responsible for the licensee under the provisions of this article.
